

Pittsfield Website Comment Policy

Comments on these pages are reviewed before they are posted. The Pittsfield Website Committee expects that participants will treat each other, as well as all of our Town citizens, Local Government and School District employees and volunteers, with respect. We will not post any comments with content that:

- uses vulgar or offensive language
- is abusive
- contains personal attacks of any kind
- contains links to other websites
- is clearly “off topic,” or “spam”

We don't edit comments to remove objectionable content, so please ensure that your comment contains none of the above.

If your comment is not posted within 2 days and you know that it does not violate the Comment Policy, please contact the webmaster.
